Get to know your February Intern and Resident of the Month: FATHER AND SON EDITION

Walid Khan, PGY-1

- Where are you from? I'm glad you asked- Houston, Texas. Quick facts- most diverse city in US, largest medical center, and we have Beyoncé.
- Favorite restaurant in Gainesville? Beque Holic- I can outeat anyone in this residency (other than Robert Case) at this place.
- Favorite breakfast food? Breakfast tacos- essential Texan breakfast. Chocolate chip pancakes are a close second.
- If you could have any superpower, what would it be and why? Teleportation- could live in Houston or anywhere else and still work here. I'd never be late to anything and no more Bitesquad fees.
- Who is your role model, and why? Tough one. Bently (despite being a Pats fan) and Dr. Tunsupon are up there- super smart, chill docs who taught a lot. And then Hakeem Olajuwon- greatest center of all time, super humble, and great Muslim.
- Biggest lesson learned this year? Keep your mouth shut until you're in the safe confines of your team room.

Sahil Prasada, PGY-2

- Where are you from? Rocky Mount, NC
- Favorite restaurant in Gainesville? La Tienda- Dr. Lascano taught me a secret menu item - add cheese and green salsa to the campechano tacos. You won't regret it!
- As a child, what did you want to be when you "grew up"? A rapper - I used to call myself $P and have rap battles with some friends in middle school. I obviously failed.
- What do you like to do outside of work? Traveling- You'll never find me in Gainesville if I have a free weekend. So far in residency, I've been to Poconos, Washington D.C., New Jersey, Southern California, Miami, New Orleans, Chicago, Raleigh, Atlanta, Tampa/Olando, Spain, and Italy. I feel like you really get to know someone when you travel with them.
- Favorite travel destination? Amalfi Coast in Southern Italy - I just returned from a trip to Sorrento/Positano - great place to snag some insta pictures.
  - What is your life motto? "A dog's gotta dog"
