

GATOR DOC PERIODICAL

UF Internal Medicine Newsletter

Welcome new interns!

Congratulations to our new intern class for completing their first month of residency!

We are all very excited for another enriching year for internal medicine.

Make sure you nominate interns and residents who did a great job this month because the Gator Doc Periodical will feature them each month!

Chief Corner: Meet Sam!

Hey guys, I'm Sam! I am one of the chiefs this year and will be predominantly responsible for everything Shands-related.

When I'm not "chiefing," I am usually either riding my horse (Toby), playing soccer (go Code Red!), hanging out with my cat (Tux) and puppy (Akela), traveling/spending time with my husband (Greg), or catching a nice cold sour beer at Swamp Head Brewery (> First Mag).

I am looking forward to getting to know all of you this year – it is going to be a great year! And if anyone is ever in need of some much-needed pet-therapy, let me know - I have you covered!
