IOM / ROM SPOTLIGHT!

Learn more about these outstanding young physicians as they answer the following riveting questions!!

- 1) What was your favorite memory from June A and B 2023?
- 2) If you weren't a gator doc, what would you be?
- 3) What is a medical term that you find yourself misspelling?
- 4) Last but not least.. what is your favorite marsupial?

Dr. David King, June IOM

- 1) "It's between going through EKG PowerPoints with the med students and running down to the duty-free store to grab tax-free gov-approved candy for the team with Neil Patel"
- 2) "I might've ended up doing engineering like my dad"
- 3) "Sadly, I still have trouble with cannula.. like is it double "N" or double "L"? Spent too much time last year thinkin' bout that one."
- 4) "I think kangaroos are overrated. Gotta give some love to sugar gliders."

- 1) "Going with VA blue team (ft. stellar radiologist Ben Kaminski and outstanding PGY-2 CeCe Witten) to the VA general store to introduce them to tax-free Zapp's chips"
- 2) "A historian, where I would spend my days sitting in a leather chair in a library and twirling my mustache"
- 3) "I can never remember if nitroglycerin has an "e" at the end or not"
- 4) "The thylacine (Tasmanian tiger), because its extinction is a monument to the hubris of man"

Dr. Kirk Jones, June ROM
